

Welcome message:

The 1st Epigenetics Society International Meeting will be held in Rome, Italy on October 12-14th at the Conference Centre “Roma Eventi - Fontana di Trevi”, part of the historic building of the “Pontificia Università Gregoriana” in Piazza della Pilotta 4. The venue is in the city center, walking distance from Fontana di Trevi, Roman Forum, The Coliseum, and many other tourist attractions.

The Conference will host plenary, parallel and poster sessions and many slots are still available. This event will represent an incredible opportunity to meet other colleagues involved in epigenetic research worldwide, to share your research, to learn about the most recent advances in epigenetics and to create new connections under the pleasant Roman atmosphere.

Melanie Ehrlich, Peter Jones, Ryan Lister, Stephen Baylin and Xiaodong Cheng are the keynote invited speakers for the conference.

See you in Rome!
